“Insurance Contract Language That Can Result in Denials or Delay of Coverage”

Mike Stoner is an associate in Anderson Kill’s California office. His practice focuses on insurance recovery, corporate and commercial litigation, and environmental law. Prior to joining the firm, he was a Summer Associate in a law firm in North Carolina, where his practice included class actions, punitive damages, agent liability, Fair Credit Reporting Act, employee disclaimers, land sale option contracts and ERISA issues.

Mr. Stoner received his J.D. magna cum laude at Pepperdine School of Law and an LL.M. in International Law at American University Washington College of Law.

Dick Mosher is an Anderson Kill attorney residing in HI, with an office at Restaurant Row. His practice focuses on insurance coverage and recovery, commercial litigation, mediation and arbitration. Mr. Mosher was a managing corporate attorney for 35 years with companies such as Ball Corporation, Maytag, the Hoover Company, and Loctronix Corporation.

Mr. Mosher has 40+ years of first chair trial experience in Federal and State Court and administrative agencies including the EEOC and Merit Systems Protection Board. He is a Fellow at the Claims and Litigation Management Alliance in New York, and past chairman of 3 national committees of the Association of Corporate Counsel.

Mr. Mosher is currently Chair of the Hawaii State Bar Association Insurance Litigation Section; Vice-Chair of the Business Section, and Treasurer of the International Section. He is current Chair of the RIMS Hawaii Nomination Committee. Dick is a graduate of Northwestern University Law School in Chicago, and has been a member of the Hawaii bar since 1972. He previously clerked for the Honorable Judge Masato Doi, and practiced with the Fujiyama, Duffy & Fujiyama Law firm.

Mike & Dick will discuss specific insurance contract language which, if not modified, can lead to ambiguities, additional litigation cost, denials or delays in tenders and acceptance of coverage.
